Jap Colony May Be Given Name Of Camp Rogers

The Japanese Relocation Center at Rohwer may be known as "Camp Rogers" in the near future, honoring Francis M. Rogers, pioneer citizen of Arkansas City, who is now dead. The name has been suggested to Congressman Norrell by the McGehee Association of Commerce.

Mr. Rogers was a prominent lawyer and planter of Desha county, and was a law partner of DeWitt Poe of McGehee. His nearest known kin is a daughter, Mrs. C. C. Day of Abilene, Texas.
